

1834

Letter to Dudley Chase

Philander Chase

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

Chase, Philander, "Letter to Dudley Chase" (1834). Philander Chase Letters. 962.
https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/962

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the College Archives at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

budley

K. Ch. [34132a]

Mr. Wells of Newbury

has just written me a letter begging to be informed of the time when you will bless us with a visit next summer that his son in law and our Dear Interpreted Moore and wife may meet you here in Gilead. The very thought of seeing you all as my Guests here in the wilderness almost electrifies me and all our family -

Pray write us soon, and under the smiles of a kind Providence make up your mind and set your time. Do not I beseech you disappoint us. We must, if God will, meet once more before we die. I should weep most bitterly were I not cheered by this fond hope.

We are all well and twice every day on our knees both myself and all our family beg God the author of all goodness to bless forever and save you and all yours.

Your loving brother
Philander Chase

Bishop Doane, about Mr. Miller's request to know when should be at school Also writing my journey of the time when you will be in with a wife at summer after his son is ten and over in October. The very thought of writing you is as my friend here in the neighborhood etc.

 most electric and also our family - from wrote in 1888, and under the number of a kind Providence order in your mind and let your name. Do not believe your disapproval to the point of God's will meet over more before we die. I should wish most to be with you but should be this first time.

We are all well and thriving and our family both our self and all our family by God the author of all goodness to keep further and more your and all yours.

Yours loving father
 William Doane

Laurel
 Smith
 Collection